Truly inspirational

"Our wedding at Newington House was everything we could have hoped for. From the idyllic church scene through to the grand setting with the marquee on the back lawn, all of our guests had the best time with great food, wine, laughter and dancing.

*If you're looking for a quintessential English Wedding –
Newington is the one for you!!"*

The ceremony

The house is licensed to hold civil ceremonies; the Drawing Room has capacity for 30 guests and the Portico has capacity for 250. We also benefit from two historic churches close by; St. Giles Church is 50m from the house or the impressive Dorchester Abbey is just 5 miles away.

The formal gardens

The formal gardens are an ideal setting for welcome drinks, canapés, photographs and garden games, while a riverside garden marquee makes the perfect setting for your wedding breakfast and party.

Professional yet homely

"Newington House is a wonderful place to get married. The house and grounds are absolutely beautiful; it feels impressive but also very homely. It was the perfect setting for a British country wedding (within easy reach of London!) Alex and James gave us the freedom to create a truly bespoke wedding. Our guests absolutely loved Newington and so did we. We'd thoroughly recommend it to other couples who want to escape the 'cookie cutter' weddings offered by more corporate venues."

Stay on site and let the excitement begin

Situated within the gardens is the Manor House, which has recently been beautifully refurbished, creating a wonderful and unique place to stay for the bridal party. With five double bedrooms, a large sitting room, dining room and stunning garden this luxurious country manor will make your wedding weekend even more special. We offer three night stays, allowing you to fully soak up the excitement. Why not kick off your celebrations with a Friday night party in the Manor House garden, and indulge in sumptuous duvets, crisp white linen, contemporary interiors and cosy fires after your big day.

Prepare to celebrate

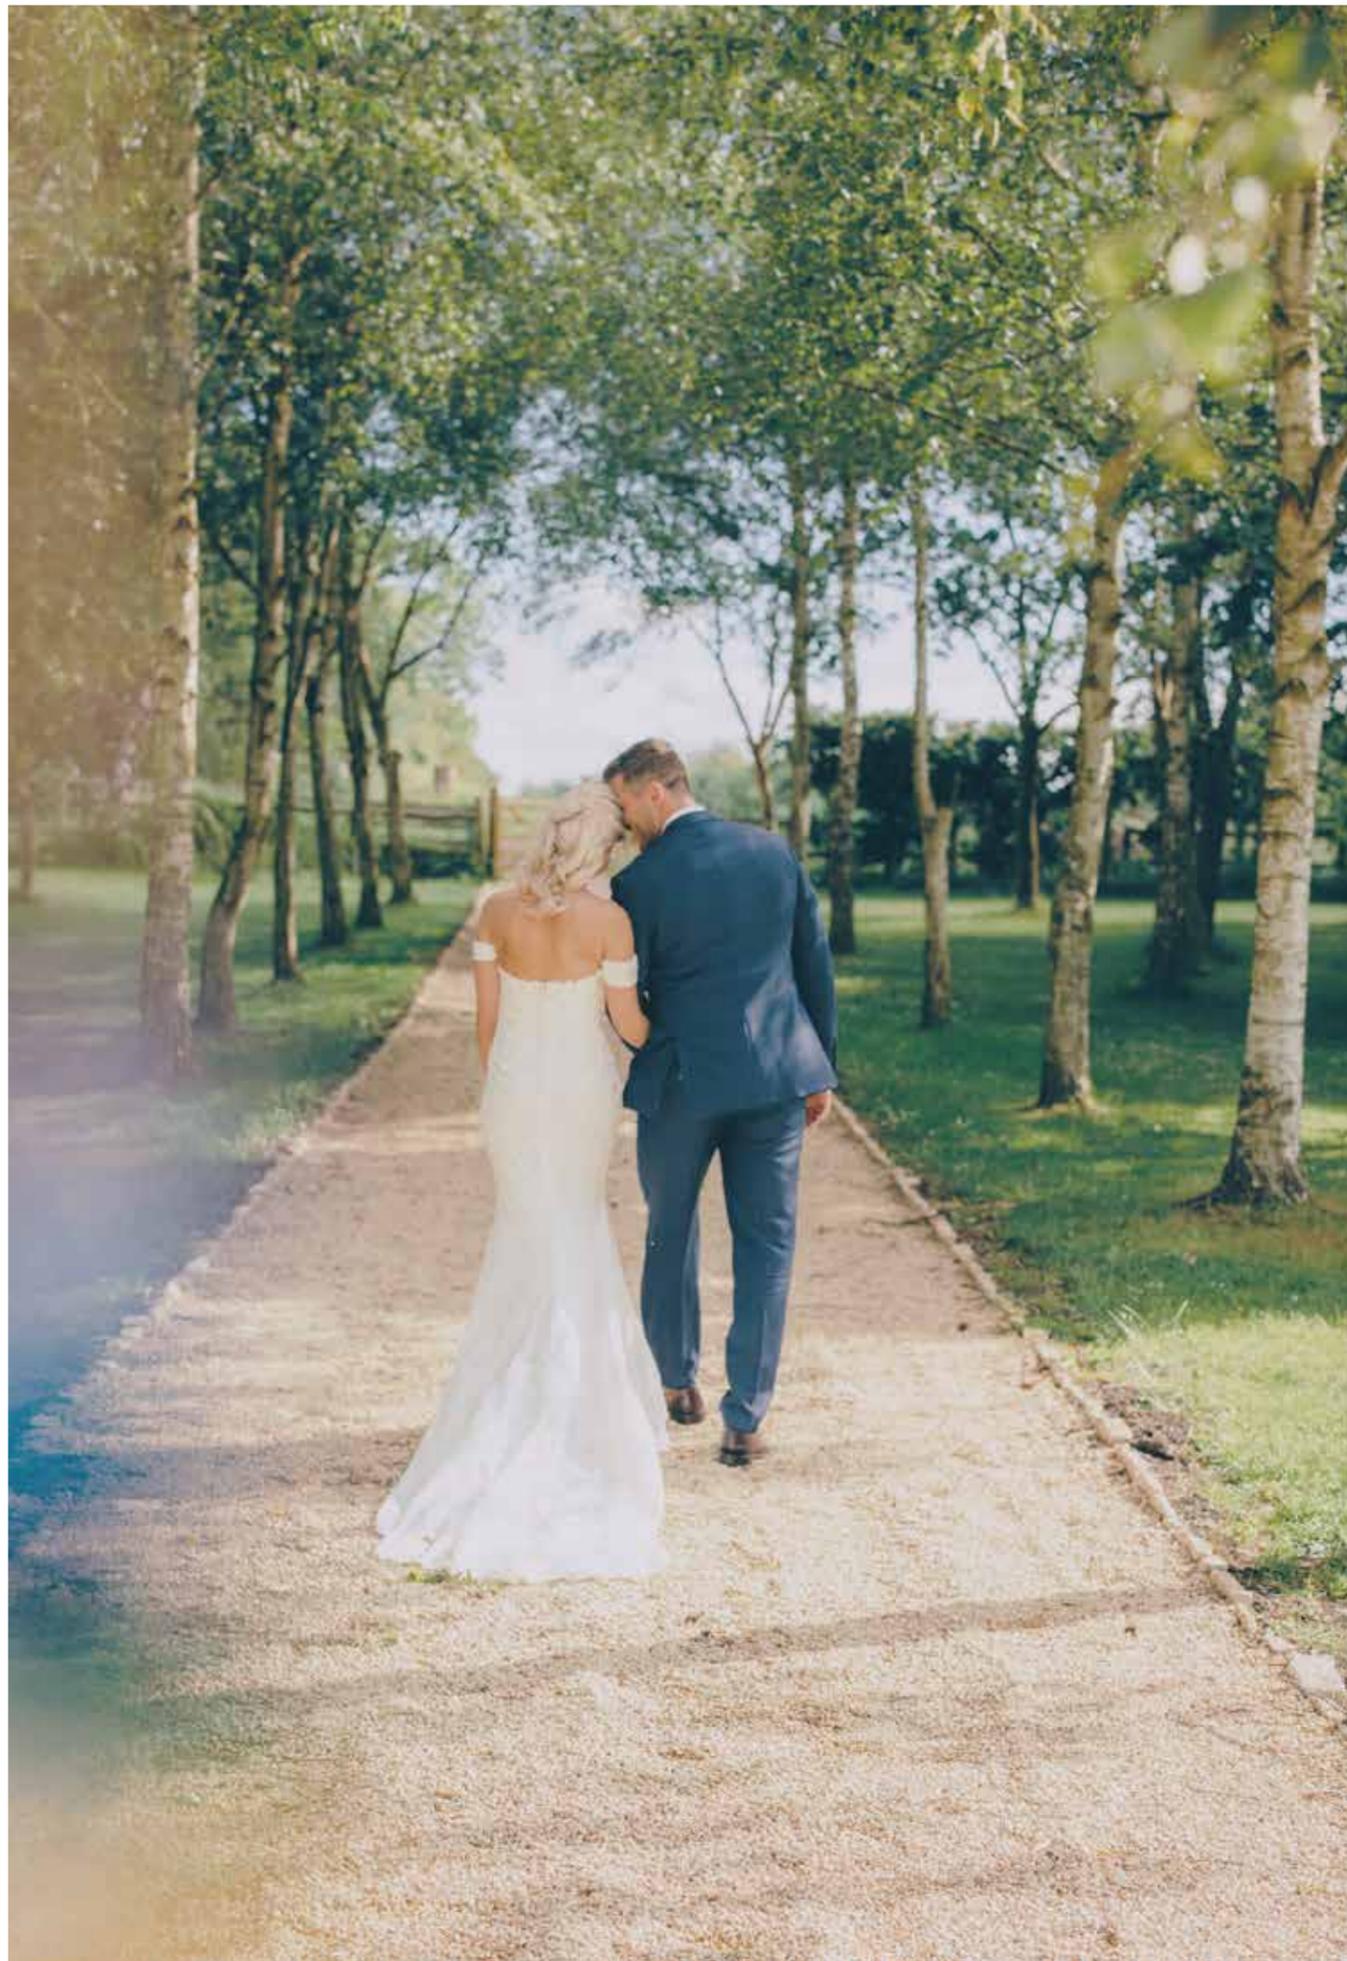

About us

Newington House is one of the finest private estates in England. Just an hour from London, this country home is set within 50 acres of impeccable Oxfordshire countryside and exudes quintessentially British grace and character.

The house's story is impossibly romantic. Built in the 17th century as a gift for a homesick Italian princess by her British husband, the house is styled on Rubens' collection of engravings, "The Palaces of Genoa", and has been lovingly restored to the highest of standards by its current owners, the Nettleton family.

Guests are warmly invited through the gates to create their own unforgettable experiences within the grandeur of this stately retreat in an atmosphere that is both relaxing and welcoming.
